

KEY TERMS

Requirement: "a verifiable statement regarding some property that a software system is to possess" [1].

Requirements are a collection of verifiable statements

Wish: a requirement that cannot be verified. We try to satisfy wishes but are not obligated to do so.

Requirement Statements (Capsule): natural language task description. May include design elements.*

Template: Structured requirement statements (capsules) in an instantiation of the general requirements engineering process.